Delete an Alibaba Cloud account

You can delete your Alibaba Cloud account if you no longer use it. Once your account is deleted, you are logged out automatically. You can sign up with Alibaba Cloud again by using the same email ID even after you delete your account.

Prerequisites

Before deleting your account, make sure that:

You have a data back-up and all your resources are released.

All your cloud resources, including Subscription and Pay-As-You-Go products are terminated and released.

You do not have any outstanding charges on your account.

Procedure

1. Go to the Security Settings of your Alibaba Cloud account.

2. On the Security Settings page, check the disclaimer checkbox in the Delete Account area, and click Delete My Account.

Delete Account I understand that by clicking this checkbox my account will be removed.
Please ensure that all your cloud services must be terminated before deleting your account to avoid further charges and all outstanding charges of both parties must be settled.
Note that the account cannot be reopened once deleted.

Delete My Account

3. Confirm that you want to delete the account, and then click OK.

Confirm on account deletion

Are you sure you will delete your account?

Please note that you will not be able to access or recover your account information once your account is removed from Alibaba Cloud platform, including your personal information and payment information. Your coupons will be automatically deactivated if you have any.

OK Cancel

The system checks whether or not all your products are terminated, and all the charges are settled.

If all the checks pass, your account is deleted in a few seconds.

If you have any Subscription products in use, you must disable the auto-renewal functions (if any) in the console and wait until the subscription period gets over. Then you can delete your account in the console.

If you have any Pay-As-You-Go products in use, you are charged within 48 hours. Your account is deleted once all the outstanding charges are paid.
